Petitioner has now filed a response to that Order, submitted with the assistance of the same Reggie Logan. The Response purports to present “Proof of Massive Corruption” within the courts of California and Nevada and includes copies of various state and federal court orders related to petitioner’s criminal prosecution and appeals, as well as various police reports. The document complains of having a previous writ dismissed by the Clerk of the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals and the purported meaning or effect of various Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure. The relief petitioner seeks through this filing is unclear and unstated.

1 This matter having been dismissed without prejudice and judgment entered on
2 petitioner's failure to conform to the Order of the Court and due to deficiencies not corrected by
3 petitioner, the Court directs the Clerk that no further documents shall be accepted for filing in this case
4 except a Notice of Appeal.

5 IT IS SO ORDERED.
